If you invest in the industry, the industry will invest in you!

“You can’t expect to do business in this industry if you’re not in the magazine and exhibiting at the EXPO Tradeshow. You have to be committed in a lot of different ways, because it’s a small industry and people do talk. But that’s a good thing, because you can get a lot of great recommendations through word of mouth, because club owners do communicate with each other and they are a very loyal group. The only way you can get to know the decision-makers in this industry is go to the EXPO and talk to them, to meet them in person.

“I serve a lot of other industries, but the adult nightclub industry is still 50 percent of my business—that’s only because I’m involved with the EXPO and with (the magazine). I’ve talked to some club owners for two or three years before they actually bought carpet. They may not order right away, but you have to continue to exhibit every year. You can’t just show up once and make a bunch of phone calls and expect club owners to order in droves. They’re probably not going to, and I don’t blame them. If you expect dedication from them you have to be dedicated to them. You have to support the industry if you want them to support you.” — Industry veteran Kristin Messick of Omega Pattern Works

Meet the insurance rockstars! A Special Focus on the personalities behind the brands

Insurance is a necessity for every single adult nightclub, and no two insurance companies — or insurance agents — are exactly alike. In this Special Focus we'll go beyond the coverages and brands in order to get to know the agents themselves. There are fewer decisions a club owner will make more important than which insurance company they'll work with, and these personal profiles will provide a window into this process.

March 2023

deadline: Feb 10

Crank it Up! A Special Focus on speakers, sound systems and microphones
