A Special Focus on speakers, sound systems and microphones

When asked what type of exhibitor they'd most like to see at the EXPO Tradeshow, the number-one answer included sound companies. It's not surprising, since every adult nightclub relies upon a clear, concise sound system, one that helps keep the party going without killing conversation between entertainers and customers.

And let's not forget microphones, the top tool in a DJ's arsenal.

This Special Focus will highlight the sound companies and products that will keep your club
